

Bio

Douglas S. Hollberg is a dedicated community leader, entrepreneur, and advocate for positive change. With a rich background in business, public service, and community involvement, Doug has left a lasting impact on the city of Griffin and beyond.

For the past 33 years, Douglas has shared his life with Pamela Joy Parsons of Washington, GA. Both devoted members of the First Baptist Church of Griffin, their strong values and commitment to their community shine through in all their endeavors. The Hollbergs are proud parents of two accomplished adult children.

Doug earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree from North Georgia College in 1990, setting the stage for his multifaceted career. An Eagle Scout and a graduate of Leadership Georgia 2000, he has consistently demonstrated his leadership abilities.

His dedication to public service is evident in his tenure as At-Large City Commissioner from 2004 to 2019, where he also took the helm as Commission Chairman in 2008, 2015, and 2018. Since 2020, Doug has continued to serve his community as the Mayor, bringing his insight and experience to guide the city forward.

Beyond his public service, Doug and his family operate Hollberg Properties, a small family business that adds to the local economy and community development. Since 2014, he has also been a valuable asset to Rivers Insurance as an Independent Insurance Agent.

Doug's commitment to community is exemplified through his involvement in numerous organizations. He plays an active role in the Flint River Boy Scout Council Executive Committee, The Salvation Army Advisory Board, and The Kiwanis Club of Griffin. His influence is felt on the Griffin Mainstreet Board and the Griffin Downtown Council, where he served as Director and Past President. Doug's engagement extends to the Griffin Spalding Chamber of Commerce Board and the Archway Partnership Steering Committee, demonstrating his dedication to collaborative growth and development.

Additionally, Doug's leadership extends to regional initiatives, including chairing the Three Rivers Regional Commission and serving as Treasurer for the I-75 Central Corridor Coalition. His commitment to legislative policy and training is evident through his roles on the Georgia Municipal Association's Legislative Policy Committee and Municipal Training Board. Furthermore, Doug's co-chair position on the Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Advisory Committee within the Georgia Municipal Association underlines his commitment to fostering an inclusive community.

Through his unwavering dedication, Doug Hollberg has woven a tapestry of service, leadership, and entrepreneurship that enriches the lives of those in Griffin and the surrounding regions. His vision for a vibrant and inclusive community continues to shape a brighter future for all.

Organizations Served

- ✓ Flint River Boy Scout Council Executive Committee
- ✓ The Salvation Army Advisory Board
- ✓ The Kiwanis Club of Griffin
- ✓ The Griffin Mainstreet Board
- ✓ Archway Partnership Steering Committee
- ✓ The Griffin Downtown Council - Director & Past President
- ✓ The Griffin Spalding Chamber of Commerce - Board Member
- ✓ Three Rivers Regional Commission - Chairman
- ✓ I-75 Central Corridor Coalition - Treasurer
- ✓ Georgia Municipal Association - Legislative Policy Committee
- ✓ Georgia Municipal Association - Municipal Training Board
- ✓ Georgia Municipal Association - Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Advisory Council

